Spa Etiquette

Spa etiquette can be a source of anxiety for first-time spa goers, but it's easy once you know a few basics.

Here are some basic rules to help you relax.

Cancellation / Postponement

In case of cancellations a minimum of 12hours notice is required to avoid cancellation charges. If your treatment is cancelled within the 12hours, a charge of 50% of the treatment price will be charged. If no notification is given, then a 100% cancellation charge will apply.

Arrive on Time

Make sure you make the most out of your Spa experience. Always try to arrive 15 to 20minutes early, especially on your first visit, as you will need a few minutes to fill out a consultation form. When undergoing a treatment at the Spa you will have access to the indoor pool, whirlpool, sauna and steam room. Should you arrive late, kindly note that the equivalent time may be deducted from your treatment

Turn off your cell phone

You can't relax if you are answering calls, checking emails and texting. And neither can the person next to you.

Speak about what you want

During a treatment, feel free to ask for anything you would like to be different, more or less pressure, quieter music, room temperature etc... Your comfort is our priority.
